My brother and I were at a very young, impressionable age when our father married a second time. He would often arrogantly parade into the house with his new wife. Mother was helpless. There was nothing she could do about it, but Nani fought with her, and scooped the two of us into her arms and brought us into her house, saying, 'You want to rot here, do so... But I am not letting my grandchildren stay here to get thrashed by their stepmother.

19. What was the reason behind leaving of his father at early age ?
20. Why did Nani take us to her home ?

The function of education, then, is to help you from childhood not to imitate anybody, but to be yourself all the time. And this is the most difficult thing to do; whether you are ugly or beautiful, whether you are envious or jealous, always to be what you are, but understand it.

To be yourself is very difficult because you think that you are ignoble, and that if you could only change what you are into something noble it would be marvellous: but that never happens.

21. Education teaches to be original. True or false ?
22. so it is not easy to be oneself.

John J. Dumont, a nearby plantation owner, purchased her next. during her tenure with his family she married and had five children in 1827, after NY had passed an emancipation act freeing its slaves, she prepared to take her family away. But Dumont began to show reluctance to this, so she ran away with only her youngest child. She finally wound up in New York City. She worked at menial job and through some friends came under the sway of a religious fanatic named Mathias.

23. What did the emancipation act say ?
24. What was her occupation ?

It is important for all of us to think in terms of first reducing our emissions of CO₂ or Carbon footprints. The carbon footprint is a subset of the ecological footprint. A Carbon footprint is the total set of greenhouse gas emissions caused by an organization, event, product or person. Greenhouse gases can be emitted through transport, land clearance and the production and consumption of food, fuels, manufactured goods, materials, wood, roads. Buildings, and services.

25. The more we produce carbon, the deeper our carbon footprint is. True or false ?
26. What are the causes of Greenhouse gases?

Headache has become such a confirmed habit that a huge trade has developed in providing a cure for it. Some people feel lost unless they carry a tube of some headache remedy in their pockets all the time, and opticians give glasses guaranteed to relieve headache. These are instances to show that mankind easily begins to believe in its myths.

27. Why has the trade developed in providing a cure for headache ?

28. Give an example that shows peoples' myths.

And now an amazing thing happened. The ants at the top began climbing down in to the pit backward, each holding the tail end of another ant in front. In this way an ant-chain was soon formed which slowly dropped down the steep side. When it reached the ants waiting with their loads, they easily climbed up the chain and came out at the top. Such behavior, showing the adeptness of ants, has been noticed and studied by many.

[05]

For last several years, I have been talking about my freedom. I remember the day when you objected to my dress and hair. That day you appeared to me like an 'evil dictators' (absolute rulers), who would never understand my style, my personality. The next day, you did not allow me to go out. I was fiercely-angry on you. We were on opposite sides and there seemed no meeting grounds. Now, when I recall this incident, I also remember how you appreciated my choice when we had to buy a gift for Asmi. I also recall how after getting angry on me for the bad report card for a few hours, both of you came into my room and explained what I should do to score more marks. I have both the types of memory but now I would prefer to remember the best. The little and big mishaps between us were just thoughtless reactions.

Questions:

35. On which bases did the writer think that his parents did not understand his style ?
36. Give an example which shows positive side of the writer's parents ?
37. Which type of memory did the writer keep with him for his growth ?

By the time I reached high school, I was so stressed out by the thought of answering question and doing group projects that my self-confidence problem would get in the way of my ability to study. I was nervous and agitated about being wrong and how people would react to me. My school and work started to suffer. Because of my inferiority complex, I couldn't go out. I was afraid of even going for shopping. I couldn't speak to people or make decisions: I hid myself away and felt like a real loser.

39. How did narrator's inferiority complex stop his growth ?
40. Read the following passage and write its summary. Suggest a suitable title to it : [05]

Kalah was a small and beautiful village with a population of only 200. We took shelter in a Sarai, a small house with a kitchen and a hall, constructed for the pilgrims (people who make a journey to holy place). The evening was very cold with temperature around 7-8° C degree temperature. It further dropped at night to 2-3° C. Our cook, who has joined us from Tyori cooked food for us. We had a welcome hot dinner followed by a sound sleep in the warmth of our sleeping bags. The morning in Kalah was beautiful. Everyone was at ease as it was an acclimatization (to become used to the conditions) halt. It was a rich mix in the true sense of the term as there were painters, writers, photographers, ornithologists and adventure lovers. Someone took a sketch book and a pencil and started sketching beautiful wooden house of the village.
