

GRE Question Papers 2027 - Sample Questions for Analytical Writing

Analyze an Issue

Question 1:

A university should require students to study subjects outside their primary field of specialisation.

Write an essay in which the extent to which you agree or disagree with the statement is discussed. Support the position with relevant reasons and examples.

Question 2:

Governments should invest more in preventing environmental problems than in addressing their consequences.

Write an essay discussing the extent to which you agree or disagree with the statement. Explain the reasoning behind the position and provide relevant examples.

Question 3:

The most effective way to learn a subject is to study it independently rather than with the guidance of a teacher.

Write an essay discussing the extent to which you agree or disagree with the statement. Support the response with relevant reasons and examples.

Question 4:

A society benefits more from encouraging competition among individuals than from encouraging cooperation.

Write an essay discussing the extent to which you agree or disagree with the statement. Explain the position using appropriate reasons and examples.

Question 5:

Technological progress is valuable only when it improves the quality of people's everyday lives.

Write an essay discussing the extent to which you agree or disagree with the statement. Support the response with relevant reasons and examples.

