IFIM National Moot Court Competition

IFIM Law School organised its National Moot Court Competition from 25th February 2022 to 27th February 2022.

IFIM's National Moot Court Competition saw participation from 22 law schools from all over India.

The Competition was inaugurated on the 25th of February 2022 which was followed by draw of lots, exchange of memorials and the researcher's test. Preliminary Round 1 was conducted on the same day. Preliminary Round 2, Pre-Quarter Final and Quarter Final Rounds were conducted on the 2nd day that is on 26th February 2022. The Semi Finals and Final round were scheduled on 27th February 2022.

Unacademy was our Title Sponsor for this event. K.Singhania and Co, Rostrum Legal, and SCC Online were our Knowledge Partners. King Stubb and Kasiva collaborated with us as our Research Partner. LSAC Global and Sodexo were onboard as our Strategy Partners.

The importance and the value of mooting in the life of a law student cannot be over-emphasised for a simple reason that the skills that are required to excel in this activity are very much akin to the skills that a lawyer requires to prosper, in not just the litigation practice, but in other legal practice areas as well. Mooting or a mock trial is basically nothing but a clinical exercise for stimulation, in which a student is groomed for future legal practices whether for law firms or in litigation or in judiciary. Law schools are simmering with competition as more and more young minds gravitate towards careers in law. In such an environment, mooting is of utmost importance. Not only does it provide students with a break from classroom learning, but it also gives them opportunities to learn and grow. Mooting develops in students the essential skills of researching, developing innovative lines of argument in consonance with the law, drafting and withstanding the questioning of seasoned and learned judges, which they are bound to face in their future, no matter what line they eventually tend to tow. Mooting skills go a long way in transforming students into effective lawyers. Participating in moot courts is an irreplaceable part of one's experience as a law student.

A robust mooting culture is quintessential to any good law programme. Through various workshops and training on court mannerisms, etiquettes, how to draft a memorial, a student gets equipped with the necessary arsenal to participate in moot court competitions. The MCC or the Moot Court Committee of IFIM Law School has been innovating and implementing new and more effective means to reach out to the students of the law school as well as others, which has definitely resulted successful endeavours of the law school in both National and International Moot Court Competitions. IFIM Law School collaborates with veteran mooters and people from the legal fraternity to conduct regular webinars and training sessions so that students learn from real life experiences. IFIM Law School has a state-of-the-art Moot Court Hall with a projection system that allows international live broadcasting facilities in the hall, which means that physical presence of teams is not necessary for conducting moot court competitions. Our students are encouraged to participate in national and international moot court competitions, such as Philip C Jessup International Law Moot Court Competition, Manfred Lachs Space Law Moot Court Competition, Willem C. Vis Arbitration Moot Court Competition, Bar Council of India Moot Court Competition, Surana & Surana National Corporate Law Moot, the NLS-Trilegal International Arbitration Moot (NLSIAM), to name a few.
