RESIDENTIAL FACILITY

Recognizing the importance of comfortable and quality accommodation, Poomima University (PU) provides well-maintained on-campus hostels, separately for boys and girls. These hostels offer not only hygienic food but also a diverse and inclusive living environment where students from various backgrounds, regions, and cultures can interact, learn, and grow together. The University has three boys' hostels—Himalaya Boys Hostel (HBH-I, HBH-II & HBH-III), named after the majestic Himalayan mountain range—and one girls' hostel, Gargi Girls Hostel, named after Goddess Saraswati, the symbol of wisdom and knowledge. Students can choose from various room configurations, including single-seater, double-seater, and triple-seater options. The accommodations are available in both air-conditioned studio rooms with attached washrooms and balconies, as well as non-air-cooled categories. Each room is furnished with essential amenities such as a bed, almirah, study table, and chair. Additionally, a common dining facility ensures nutritious meals for all residents, while cooking inside rooms is strictly prohibited.
